The parties, by and through their respective counsel, hereby stipulate to extend the dispositive motion deadline in this case to July 19, 2019. The extension is requested because the parties are still in the process of supplementing prior discovery responses and discussing disputes regarding the same. Additionally, the parties have agreed amongst themselves that certain depositions noticed and scheduled to occur within the discovery deadline would be completed thereafter based on new settlement discussions and scheduling issues of certain witnesses (at least one of whom has obtained counsel), and transcripts need to be
